MISSIONARY CONGRESS WILL ASSEMBLE HERE

Prominent Religious Speakers to Address Men's Gathering Which Closes Nation-wide Series.

The men's National Missionary Congress to be held in Washington, April 26-30, under the direction of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, will be one of the most momentous religious gatherings since the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh in 1910. It will be the climax to the series of great conventions of the National Missionary Campaign held during the past fall and winter in the leading cities of the United States. All the important foreign and home mission agencies will participate in the congress. Missionary leaders regard the gathering as a potential event. The assembly will face new world conditions of opportunity and need and is expected to exert a profound influence on the missionary activities of the next ten years.

The arrangements for the congress were made by the Laymen's Missionary Movement. All the sessions will be held in the Memorial Continental Hall, opening Wednesday evening, April 26, and closing Sunday evening, April 30. The congress will be a deliberative body and the delegates, limited in number, have been allotted to the various Protestant religious denominations upon an equitable basis.

As early as April 1 delegates had been registered from thirty-six States.

President Wilson has signified his intention of being present at the opening session on Wednesday evening. The program is remarkable for its strength and personnel, and provides for a combination of address and discussion.

One of the most remarkable features of the program will be motion pictures, perhaps the most striking motion picture demonstration of missionary work attempted up to date. A sketch of the program of missions, both at home and abroad, will be thrown upon the screen, giving the missionary occupation of the non-Christian world during the last hundred years and showing the remarkable increase in missionary interest and practice in North America during that period.

Among the outstanding leaders of Christian activity and thought who have accepted invitations to speak at the congress are John R. Mott, Robert E. Speer, Dr. Shailer Mathews, Dr. W. D. MacKenzie, Dr. E. M. Potest, Bishop Francis J. McConnell, George Sherwood Eddy, Raymond Robins, Silas McBee, Hon. A. F. Wilder, Dr. John F. Goucher, J. Campbell White, F. S. Brockman and former Lieut. Gov. A. J. Wallace, of California.

Some topics to be considered are: The Present-Day World Appeal to American Laymen.

Possibilities of Military Achievement as Illustrated by Actual Experiences.

Practical Ways in Which Laymen Can Best Use Their Property for the Extension of Christ's Kingdom.

How May Christ More Largely Dominate All Contracts of American Life With the Non-Christian World?

The Adequacy of the Gospel to Meet the Social Needs of the Nations.

The Contradiction of the Law of Christ in American Life.

How Increase Lay Initiative and the Sense of Responsibility for the Missionary Tasks of the Church.

Missions: An Illustration and a Method of Realizing Christian Unity.

The Basis of Effective Lay Service.

The Next Steps in Calling Out the Latent Forces of the Church.

Lectures on Metabolism.

The third of the April series on nutrition arranged under auspices of the Washington Academy of Sciences was given yesterday afternoon in the auditorium of the New National Museum by Dr. E. B. Forbes, chief of the department of nutrition of the Ohio agricultural station, on "Investigations on the Mineral Metabolism of Animals."

Lectures on Photography.

Henry Hess, president of the Ives Hess Corporation, delivered an illustrated lecture last night on "Photography in Natural Colors," before the Federal Photographic Society at the National Museum. Prints, enlargements, transparencies, and lantern slides were exhibited, showing the different uses of color in photographic work.

DIAMOND COUNTING
RACE NEARING END

Last Lap Being Run in Herald Competition—Cash Prizes Offered for Correct Solutions.

If you are going to secure one of the cash prizes for solving The Herald's "diamond mystery" you will have to begin work before many more days. If you have already submitted a solution, and remitted only a portion of the amount allowed to be paid with each different solution, you may increase it to the maximum sum if you wish to receive the maximum value of any prize you might win.

This interesting contest is now nearing its last lap, but with the ten or twelve days yet remaining before its close, there is still ample time for everybody who has not yet entered to do so, and the chance to win will be just the same as if you had entered the very first day. Books of extra charts may be obtained for 15 cents each.

All diamonds in the puzzle chart are to be counted, whether the separate ones in the corners or those that can be formed by manipulation of the lines forming the diamonds in the center. All that is required is to give the total number of the diamonds, if not being necessary to specify the number of each different class. If in doubt about any of the conditions or rules of the contest, communicate with the puzzle manager by letter or telephone and full information will be forthcoming.

Before sending in solutions contestants should carefully study the schedule of prizes. While it is optional with contestants to send in whatever amount between 50 cents and $1.20 they wish with each different solution, the main prizes have an added value determined by the amount paid on subscription, and, consequently, it is worth while to pay as much as you feel able to. In any event, with the near approach of vacation time, and the attendant need of funds, no one can well afford to pass up the golden opportunity The Herald's diamond counting contest offers.

CHANCE BOOSTS CAPITAL

"Buy in Washington by Parcel Post" Is Official Slogan.

Postmaster M. O. Chance has joined the ranks of the boosters. Postmaster Chance advised Secretary Charles J. Columbus, of the Retail Merchants' Association, yesterday by letter that he is having posters like a sample which he enclosed to Mr. Columbus set up in all postoffices between here and Leonardtown, Md., on the new star route. The card gives the parcel post rates between postoffices on the route and this city, and in addition to advising the country to send its produce to Washington by parcel post, suggests that the citizens in that territory "shop in Washington by parcel post."

PROMINENT PERSONS
ARGUE FOR LOAN BILL

Witnesses Say Brokers Move Into Virginia and Continue Exorbitant Rates for Borrowers.

Declaring that the enforcement of the existing law had driven loan sharks out of the District and forced needy borrowers to pay their exorbitant rates in Alexandria, witnesses before the Senate District Committee yesterday advocated the enactment of the Smith bill, permitting a loan rate of 2 per cent a month. The present rate of 1 per cent a month drove pawnbrokers out of Washington only to the extent of locating them at the other end of the Highway Bridge or in Alexandria.

William H. Baldwin, chairman of the citizens' committee, was the chief speaker. Former Ambassador Henry White, Mrs. Archibald Hopkins, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Wainwright, and Evan Tucker were among the witnesses. They testified that the Smith bill has the support of the Board of Trade, the Chamber of Commerce, the District Commissioners, and various other organizations.

The death rate from tuberculosis, that finest and grimmest social register of general health conditions, has gone down nearly 50 per cent, and the average wealth of the community per capita has increased from less than $500 up to $1,500.

IT'S YOUR LIVER!
YOU'RE BILIOUS,
HEADACHY, SICK

Don't Stay Constipated, with Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, or a Cold.

Enjoy Life. Live Your Liver and Bowels Tonight and Feel Fine.

Tonight sure! Remove the liver and bowel poison which is keeping your head dizzy, your tongue coated, breath offensive and stomach sour. Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy, constipated and full of cold. Why don't you get a box of Casarets from the drug store now? Eat one or two tonight and enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced. You will wake up feeling fit and fine. Casarets never gripe or bother you all the next day like calomel, salts and pills. They act gently but thoroughly. Mothers should give Casarets to their children. They are harmless and children love them—Adv.
